Prom Crowns Emperor and Empress

Crowning ceremonies for an emperor and empress highlighted the evening of the Torrance High School's Junior and Senior Prom, May 23.

Golden rickshaws pulled by appropriately dressed coolies brought Empress Carol Shinoda and Emperor Gerald Sherburne to the Moongate, where crowning took place.

The students were selected by the junior class cabinet upon service to the school. Other candidates for the honored positions served as the court. They were Gerry Day, Loretta Robison, Evelyn Salas, Carol Surber, Mike Mullen, Robert Church, Dennis Hansen and David Hill.

"Oriental Springtime," theme of the prom, was announced by Oriental lighted letters. A large buddha seated beside a spouting water fountain among a cloister of green foliage was spotted with green lights. The Moongate was flanked by Oriental heads with the evening's theme further carried out by hanging Oriental lanterns and flower covered boughs.

Dancing took place from 9 p. m. to midnight with music furnished by "The Moonlighters."

WELCOME GREETINGS are given by YMCA Teen Canteen council members, from left, Paul Seyh and Lynda Porterfield to the new counselor, Roger Sherwin. Sherwin, who was selected at the last meeting of the canteen, May 26, will take over the duties of counseling during the summer months.

'Y' Advisors to Be Honored at Sunday Tea

A tea honoring the advisors of thirteen Y-Teen clubs will be held Sunday from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 Carson.

The women have served in an advisory capacity this past year for over 400 girls in the Torrance area. Besides weekly meetings, they have served many hours counseling, chaperoning and helping the girls in the teenage program.

Women to be honored include: Mmes. William Churchman, Evelyn Bishop, A. F. Muziers, John Mascola, E. J. Goldsmith, Paul Roettger, Shirley Cunningham, Forrest Cato, Archie Watson, L. H. Voien, Clyde Moore, James Sandusky, and Joseph Hubbard.

The Inter-club Council headed by president Flora Watson has planned the event. Committee heads include Sandra Stonaker, Diana McNiel and Kendra McBridge.

The program will consist of awards, presentations, description of club activities and the announcement of the outstanding member of each club. Kendra McBridge will be Mistress of Ceremonies and Maren Courtney will give devotions.
